

Introducing the Council's

National Improvement Video Challenge

The Council on Patient Safety in Women's Health Care is pleased to announce the National Improvement Video Challenge, an innovative opportunity for institutions to share how they have utilized the Council's Patient Safety Bundles.

Objectives

- To foster a culture of collaboration, teamwork, patient safety, and communication between clinicians and patients to promote the Council's mission: safe health care for every woman.
- To facilitate innovative peer-to-peer sharing of best practices related to the implementation and use of the Council's Patient Safety Bundles.

How do I participate?

- Develop a short (3-5 minute) video showcasing how a Council bundle has been implemented and utilized within your institution.
- Upload your video to your YouTube or Vimeo account.
- Submit the online Video Challenge Application Form.

Evaluation & Awards

Submissions will be evaluated and voted on by the members of the Council with respect to bundle implementation and utilization activities and overall quality of video content. The top three submissions for each cycle will receive a monetary award and will have their video shared by the Council.
